Advice

Elian Valadez

If you plan on going to college, do the work now. Get the grades you need and want. Later you can do what you want and go where you want to go.

Ethan West

Show up to the home games and be loud.

Karsen Cox
Do your homework.

Sarah Rowles

Be kind to each other; it is not that difficult.

Grace Brown

Bring the energy for Homecoming Week!

Ev Duvall

Prioritize what's important to you and your life after high school.

Citlali Carbajal

Get administration on your good side.

Jesse Robison

Listen to what everyone has to say, but don't take the advice of under-achievers.

Keileen Weberpal

Keep going and remember to be yourself.

Rosa Jimenez

Go to the school events like the dances and activity nights. (A lot of the time they are actually really fun!)

Margaret Higgins

Pay attention in class.

Elaine Robbins

Start and end your day with a coffee.

Henry Kwiatkowski

Don't procrastinate, especially in math.

Graham Oxley

Stay organized and to be respectful to teachers.

Jose Espinoza

High school can be exhausting. Make sure to make time for yourself, take it one day at a time.

Kacey Pietrowiak

Have a planner.

Stella Bushey

Don't let the adults in your life carve your path.

Tyler McKean
Stay in sports.

Dion Soto

Keep up with your work.

Degarya Sumiejski

Don't be lazy; you'll regret it!

Rebekah Scott

Make sure you give it your best from the beginning to the end!

Nadia Nateghi
Save your Culver's free scoops and tokens.

Anna Lock

Get out there and be a part of something; don't let fear hold you back from finding joy in something.

Cheyenne Billings

Read Anthem in Terrill's class for your buy it or burn it.

Bridget Higgins

Stay focused on your school work and don't slack off.
